It's way too early to count the Phillies out of contention in the NL East, nfl jersey size chart, but obstacles just keep materializing in their path. The latest is a big one.

After placing Chase Utley and Placido Polanco on the disabled list Tuesday, nhl replica jersey, the Phillies know they'll have to play at least through the All-Star break without half of their starting infield. Utley is out with a sprained ulnar collateral ligament in his left thumb and Polanco has left elbow inflammation. The Phillies already are playing without regular catcher Carlos Ruiz, practice basketball jerseys, who is on the DL after suffering a concussion.

Utley has been on the DL only once in his career, red sox jersey, when he broke his hand in 2007, mlb replica jerseys, but the timing of this injury is awful for a Phillies team that has had all kinds of trouble scoring runs with what was expected to be one of the league's marquee offenses.

The two replacements added to the roster Tuesday, new nike nfl uniforms, utility man Greg Dobbs and infielder Brian Bocoock, baseball jersey designer, don't figure to make much of an impact on that front.
